

SENATOR KEVIN LUNDBERG RECOMMENDATIONS
ON STATE BALLOT QUESTIONS

The Blue Book is out and it has a daunting 14 statewide ballot questions.

Here are my recommendations:

Amendment G: Modify Property Tax Exemption for Veterans with Disabilities – Yes

Amendment H: Judicial Discipline Procedures and Confidentiality – Yes

Amendment I: Constitutional Bail Exception for First Degree Murder – Yes

Amendment J: Repealing the Definition of Marriage in the Constitution – No

Amendment K: Modify Election Deadlines – No

Amendment 79: Constitutional Right to Abortion – No

Amendment 80: Constitutional Right to School Choice – neutral

This one needs some explanation. I rarely oppose any school choice options, but I am troubled by the final sentence in this constitutional question: “Each K-12 child has the right to school choice.” This constitutional wording may in some cases grant the authority for school choice to the child instead of the parents. I consider this wording to be problematic, and therefore I am taking a neutral position for my public recommendations. (Other reliable sources including pastor and state representative Scott Bottoms recommends voting NO).

Proposition JJ: Retain Additional Sports Betting Tax Revenue – No

Proposition KK: Firearms and Ammunition Excise Tax – No

Proposition 127: Prohibit Bobcat, Lynx, and Mountain Lion Hunting – No

Proposition 128: Parole Eligibility for Crimes of Violence – Yes

Proposition 129: Establishing Veterinary Professional Associates – Yes

Proposition 130: Funding for Law Enforcement – Yes

Proposition 131: Establishing All-Candidate Primary and Ranked Choice Voting General Elections – No

This measure is very dangerous and disruptive. It does not give individual citizens more electoral power, it pretty much eliminates what effect political parties may have on elections and empowers the very rich who can buy their way onto the ballot. Ranked choice voting also makes hand counting and any reasonable election audits impossible.
